

PLTI Online Brings You Top-Notch Courses

PLTI adds courses to the website on a regular basis—check the website frequently to keep up to date. Here are several:

- Bushnell Neilson on the Title Policy and Closing Dos and Don'ts
- Class Actions and the Title Industry: A class you really don't want to join!
- Commercial Closings for the Residential Closer
- So You're on the Web?
- Title Insurance Claims Chronicles
- Title Technology and Contracts

Get Started with PLTI Online in Less than Five Minutes

Everything you need to get started with PLTI Online is at www.pltionline.org. You can register, perform a system test, select and purchase a course and start learning in less than five minutes. You'll learn on your schedule, in your home or office, at a price competitive with PLTI's live seminars.

Your first and best source for education in title insurance

www.pltionline.org
800-545-PLTI

Stay on top of your game.

Desktop or Laptop,
PLTI Online Brings You
Accredited Title Education

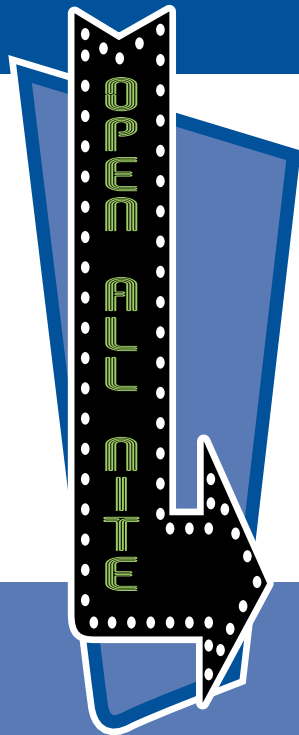

www.pltionline.org

PLTI: Still Tops in the Field of Title Education

In the land title insurance business, if you don't keep up with professional education, you may get left behind. Continuing education is essential to meet state licensing requirements for title insurance agents and attorneys, and also to stay on top of the continuous changes in regulations and best practices in our industry.

"I wanted to take a course during the day, but my schedule doesn't let me leave the office. PLTI Online helped me find time to get the education I need. The material was useful to me, and the speakers were really good."

—Carrie Weber, Title Agent, Settlement Solutions Group, Monroeville, PA

Pennsylvania Land Title Institute is your first and best resource for title education. For more than a quarter-century, we have led the way in delivering quality title insurance education to land title, real estate and legal professionals.

Now, PLTI Online extends PLTI's curriculum into the realm of electronic learning. You can access our growing online course list through the internet at any time, from any location. CE and CLE accredited programs presented by top title experts in digital video stream over the internet to PLTI Online course subscribers, each program accompanied by a course study guide. Pause the program as needed, and review whenever you want within ninety days. A toll-free help line has representatives on call to answer your technical questions and needs.

"With the PLTI Online course, you do the work on your own time. You can go back to review the parts that are unfamiliar. I enjoyed the course, and I'll definitely use PLTI Online again."

—Kathy Ringler, President, Mutual Abstract Company of Pennsylvania, Feasterville, PA

"This was one of the most enjoyable courses of any kind that I've taken. The presenter used fresh examples to show the new aspects of a familiar topic. It was nice to be able to take the course and the test from home."

—Jim Nolan, Owner, Tohickon Abstract Company, New Hope, PA

Top-Quality, Accredited Courses

The courses are the same high-quality seminars and programs presented live by PLTI at locations around Pennsylvania. Some of the nation's most authoritative and articulate title experts present timely, title-specific material.

All PLTI Online courses are accredited for Continuing Education (CE) for Pennsylvania title insurance agents and Continuing Legal Education (CLE) for attorneys.

CE credits are awarded following passage of an online examination which is graded instantly. CLE credits are awarded following completion of all sections of a course.

Accreditation for additional states is pending.

PLTI Online courses are ready when you are, around the clock and in any location.

www.pltionline.org